MEDIA CONSENT FORM

Sailability Shorncliffe Inc. 69 Sinbad Street Shorncliffe Qld 4017

This consent form is for Sailability Shorncliffe clients, their relatives, carers and support workers who sail with or participate in events with us Sailability Shorncliffe.

The Privacy Act 1988 imposes obligations on organisations to protect personal information they collect. Images of individuals in photographs or on film are treated as personal information under the Act if the individual's identity is clear or can reasonably be worked out from an image.

We may wish to use photos or video footage that includes you on our website, Facebook feed, newsletters or on promotional material. We use these platforms to promote the Shorncliffe Sailability experience.

We can't use your image unless we have your consent or the consent of a responsible person¹ acting on your behalf. This consent, once given, will be amended or revoked only upon receipt of written advice from the person who gave it to us.²

Please be aware:

- We will not pay anyone for giving this consent.
- We may keep the images on record or use them, unless you revoke consent.
- If you revoke consent, we will destroy any unpublished images.
- Unless you specify limits on the use of images, we may use them in the future.
- We will not pass the images onto any other party without your consent.
